

Homophones

Name: _____

These words sound the same and mean different things. Circle the right one, then write what the other one means.

1. The (piece / peace) of the morning was worth getting up for.

2. Our school (principal / principle) speaks at assembly on Fridays.

3. I do not know (weather / whether) the game is still on.

4. We (past / passed) your house on the way to the rink.

5. She read the poem (aloud / allowed) to the whole class.

6. The dog buried (its / it's) bone under the porch.

7. They left (their / there / they're) boots in the hall.

8. The (stationary / stationery) drawer has envelopes in it.

Homophones — Answer Key

1. peace 2. principal 3. whether 4. passed

5. aloud 6. its 7. their 8. stationery

A principal is a person (your pal); a principle is a rule. Stationery with an e is for envelopes.