

Writing a Report

Name: _____

A report explains a subject to somebody who does not know it. Choose something you already know well.

Subject
What it is
How it works or what it does
Two facts most people do not know
Where I found my information

Put facts in your own words. Copying sentences from a source and changing two words is still copying — and a reader can always tell.

Now write your draft.